Dear Student,

To receive your Preliminary HSC (and HSC) you must be enrolled with the Board of Studies. Before this can be done you must complete a short course called HSC: All My Own Work, on-line. Your teachers will often refer to elements of this course in discussions with you about your work.

The HSC: All My Own Work program is designed to help Higher School Certificate students to follow the principles and practices of good scholarship. This includes understanding and valuing ethical practices when locating and using information as part of their HSC studies.

The program is designed to be delivered flexibly as self-paced learning modules. The program's content is divided into five modules:

1. Scholarship Principles and Practices
2. Acknowledging Sources
3. Plagiarism
4. Copyright
5. Working with others.

Each module contains:

(a) Five Questions (With answers for you to read through.)
(b) Summary
(c) Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)
(d) Resources
(e) Quiz Questions (Which you must answer.)

Each module can be completed in approximately one hour.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO DO?

1. You will need to go to the following site:

2. You need to go to each module, as listed above, by clicking on its link. You must do module 1 Scholarship Principles and Practices first, the other modules can be completed in any order.
3. You need to read carefully through each of the five questions and answers, the summary and FAQs. If you need further information go to the resources section.

4. You must then complete the Quiz. You can repeat the quiz as often as required, however you must achieve a minimum of 90%. To show that you have completed each module, you need to enter your full name at the beginning of each quiz and print off the results page.

5. The printed results must be shown to Mrs Chegwidden, who will then mark off the modules you have completed to the minimum mark of 90%. Once all modules have been completed you will be enrolled in your courses with the Board of Studies.

If you have any questions concerning this course see Mr Jackson or Mrs Chegwidden.

THIS WORK MUST BE COMPLETED BY 22ND FEBRUARY 2012
